

Title: Full Speed Ahead (60 – 90 minutes)

Now is the time to thrive in a world of rapid and unnerving change.

Using concepts from his bestselling books, The Age of Speed and The Ant & the Elephant, Vince shares his Olympic experience and the 'speed' model that took him from recreational skier to vying for the Gold in speed skiing in 4 short years. Give your audience an invigorating perspective that reveals:

- Leadership strategies for aligning employees with a common mission
- Competitive agility by "doing what the competition is not willing to do"
- Eliminating drag on the micro (individual) and macro (team) scales
- Hands-on-tools to accelerate results in a slowing economy
- Practical motivation with an against the odds story of "recreational skier to Olympics in four years"
- Energized fun with Vince's infectious energy, warmth and humor, Vince delivers an experience that translates into an empowered audience.

Renowned business strategist on accelerating change and New York Times bestselling author, Vince Poscente is a master communicator. He knows how to get an audience's attention with practical information made sustainable with his unforgettable story.

"Your presentation was exciting, entertaining and very educational."
State Farm Insurance Companies

"Our purpose was to turbo-charge the enthusiasm and energy levels of our team members and to have them fully embrace the idea of strength-based leadership and living. We could not have asked for a better speaker to deliver our message than Vince."
Hampton Brand Management, Hilton Hotels Corp

"He was terrific, the leaders loved it and the activities we developed from his ideas went really well." Centegra Health