

Dear Jane,

Your keynote at our 2010 Women's Leadership Conference was the perfect way to end our conference! The women left the facility to return to their hectic lives with huge smiles as a result of your warm, sincere, funny, meaningful and engaging talk! We received so many compliments regarding your session. At times you had them pondering, other times laughing and even near tears. Your positive attitude and friendly personality is something that is very contagious. The evaluations were excellent and indicated that your message was energetic and uplifting. Thanks so much for sharing your personality, talent and wit with these ladies after two long days of training, they really appreciated the high that you left them on! Little did they know when they arrived they would be doing the Hokey Pokey before the end of the day!

Cordially,
