

The Best and the Brightest

The Carlyle Group is the largest private equity investment firm in the world, with over $90 billion in assets under management. This year they chose Chris Bliss as the opening night keynote at their annual investor conference in Washington DC, attended by top institutional and individual investors from across the globe.

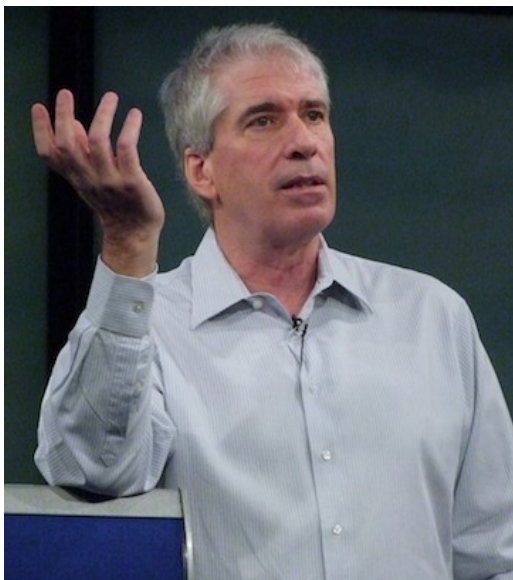

Dell Healthcare Services is the largest provider of healthcare IT in the United States. Dell's annual Executive Healthcare Summit, attended only by top executives of Dell and its major healthcare partners like the Mayo Clinic, also featured Chris Bliss as its after-dinner speaker.

The Broward Workshop is a business organization made up exclusively of chief decision makers from 100 of south Florida's leading companies, including legendary entrepreneur Wayne Huizenga and Spirit Airlines CEO Ben Baldanza. They decided to add entertainment to their annual retreat for the first time ever this year, selecting Chris Bliss. As this letter from the Executive Director attests, the result was a smashing success.

Three diverse meetings with two things in common: the highest level of decision makers in attendance, and the act hailed as "one of the brightest comedians around" by Jay Leno – Chris Bliss.

With an impeccable track record at all manner of events for many of America's leading companies, including executive summits and annual retreats, Chris Bliss belongs on your short list.

Beyond Entertainment

Chris Bliss speaking on "The Power of Humor and Freedom of Expression" at the Newseum in Washington, DC

Communicating strategic plans and key takeaways in an effective and inspirational way is the essential goal of all corporate meetings.

Beyond his reputation as an entertainer, Chris Bliss is also a highly skilled communicator and meeting facilitator who excels at working with clients to effectively craft, deliver, and reinforce their mission-critical conference messages.

This service can be packaged along with a keynote/headline performance, providing clients multiple services for a single fee.

Chris's collaboration with Hong Kong-based Noble Group on their Global Think Tank event in Dubai highlights these skills. Both the meeting planner and the client provided glowing references.

Most Recent Recommendation (more here)

Dear Chris,

Thank you so much for your spot-on keynote at our annual CASBO conference in Sacramento. I've gotten nothing but excellent feedback about your performance.

As I told you before the event, this has been yet another extremely challenging year for our members, who continue to do more with less to serve the needs of California's schools and school children. The customized material you put together about schools and public education was perfect, setting the tone for a great program, with your juggling finale providing exactly the kind of spark and energy we were looking for to carry everyone into the serious sessions that followed.

Thanks again for a spirited, original, and extremely funny presentation. I would love to have you return in the future.

I wish you well in all your endeavors and would never hesitate in recommending you to my colleagues and friends. I have worked with many speakers and rarely offer this recommendation. You did more than we asked for, delivered it in a professional manner, were a hit with our members, and respected our time and needs! Thank you!

Best wishes and we look forward to working with you in the future.

Warmly,

Molly McGee Hewitt
