

Steve Farber's Introduction

In considering our lineup for this meeting, we sought a keynote speaker who would be able to interpret for us the roots of leadership, to help us know what it is, how to inspire it and how we can all benefit from it in the years to come.

Now it is my great pleasure to introduce Steve Farber, who has raised the stakes of leadership to the extreme.

Listed on Inc's ranking of the Top 50 Leadership and Management Experts in the world, Steve is an executive coach, speaker and a best-selling author. His third book, Greater Than Yourself: The Ultimate Lesson of True Leadership, debuted as a USA Today and Wall Street Journal Bestseller. His second book, The Radical Edge was hailed as "a playbook for harnessing the power of the human spirit." And his first book, The Radical Leap: A Personal Lesson in Extreme Leadership, is already considered a classic in the leadership field and was named one of the 100 Best Business Books of All Time.

Steve is the former Vice President of legendary management guru, Tom Peters' company and is the founder of The Extreme Leadership Institute—an organization devoted to changing the world through the cultivation and development of leaders in business, non-profits, and education. He is a member of the exclusive Transformational Leadership Council, and has served as Vice-Chairman on the Board of Directors of the world-renown Up With People, a global leadership program for students from 18 to 29 years old.

We believe Steve's approach to inspiring Extreme Leadership can help us be better leaders back at work and in shaping the future of our organization(s).

Part strategist, part social commentator, and all energy – please welcome Steve Farber.
