Dear Scott:

I want to express my sincere thanks for speaking at our company event. You were dynamic, motivating and spoke not only from your own challenges and experiences in your life, but you spoke from your heart. I couldn't have been more pleased. You challenged everyone in the room to keep reaching for their goals, whether those goals are for personal growth or professional growth. You tapped into the souls of our associates and for that I thank you.

The following week the associates were still talking about your message. Very powerful! Scott, I again thank you for your commitment to challenge and success and for teaching my associates the power of empowerment.

Sincerely,
