Hello Scott,

The conference in Orlando was a great success and your presentation really got things off to a great start. You truly exceeded our expectations and we continued to hear positive feedback throughout the rest of that day and for the rest of the conference. You really were the highlight of an all around great meeting and we thank you so much. Although we are still in the process of tabulating the official survey results, at a quick glance, it is obvious that your presentation was rated at the top!

On a personal note, I am so happy that we had this opportunity to work together and that we were able to spend a few minutes chatting. Your strength and dedication is amazing and inspiring.

I would love the opportunity to work together again and will not hesitate to spread the word about you to my colleagues.
