

Stand Up to Any Challenge!

Keynote Presentation

Does today's economy have you at a loss on how to inspire your team to stand up to any challenge and reach beyond their boundaries? It is hard to know how to proceed when what you cannot control seems to set the agenda.

Scott Burrows knows more than anyone what it's like to fight back against overwhelming odds. His powerful story of perseverance and triumph after two life-changing experiences shows you it's possible to succeed beyond what you thought possible. Inspiring and humorous, Scott's presentation encourages you to leave your comfort zone, stretch your thinking and push beyond self-perceived limitations in spite of the barriers that may be in your way.

Drawing on his business success, athletic background, and physical recovery, Scott delivers a blueprint for achieving greater levels of performance. His three-pronged strategy of Vision, Mindset and Grit is the core of his success and Scott illustrates what it means and how to apply it. Your audiences are moved to take positive action in their challenges, endeavours and market opportunities.

- Vision – finding the passion to pursue your next level of achievement
- Mindset – staying true to your goals and your business plan in this ever-changing marketplace; adjusting your vision as circumstances change
- Grit – the tenacity to persevere and see things through knowing that nothing worth achieving ever comes too easy

Scott's presentation shows you how to turn your setbacks into sustainable comebacks while expanding your competitive advantage.

Every presentation is fully customized to drive home your company's objectives. Scott will speak with key members of your organization in advance to ensure that his talk is tailored specifically to your key business issues, challenges and opportunities.

Scott Burrows went from a nationally ranked young athlete to a diagnosed quadriplegic in the blink of an eye. Despite a grim medical prognosis, Scott continuously set and achieved unprecedented goals in his recuperation. By applying his recovery strategy to his professional life, he quickly rose up through the ranks in insurance sales, joining the Million Dollar Round Table in just five years. Today Scott's passion is sharing his story and tools for success with corporate audiences in all industries, as well as running an international export business.