

EXPLOSIVE MINDS RECENT CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

"Well it was just what the doctor ordered! After a couple of days of Conferencing the mid afternoon Explosive Minds session was spot on. Rather than a presentation from the podium, Explosive Minds got everyone gladly involved, doing things they never would have previously dreamed of, while learning a few things about themselves and their colleagues.

Inhibitions soon melted away, and the witty and tasteful humour meant that everyone had a great time, which is always a risk with any form of comedy in a mixed audience. Would I engage Explosive Minds again? Absolutely. Would I recommend them to someone who wants to put some fun into virtually any gathering? Of course."

Arthur Ellis Pty Ltd

"Explosive Minds! makes communication come alive as they take you on a fun-filled, unpredictable journey into the unknown. Be prepared to laugh until you cry as boundaries are stretched and you are involved in taking communication to a whole new level. A resounding success, the Explosive Minds! session cemented the success of our whole program!"

Group Training Australia

"Explosive Minds were the perfect entertainment act, no matter what the theme. Their fresh approach and broad sense of humour was perfect for my large, multicultural group of store managers. From hire to farewell, I couldn't be more happy then with the progress and professionalism of the group."

DSE (Holding) Pty Ltd

"Explosive Minds! are true professionals able to capture an audience quickly and set the tone of the night on a high. They played a critical role in ensuring the evening was a huge success – nothing was too difficult and they worked seamlessly to our requirements!"

Roche Pharmaceuticals

"Excellent! The best conference session I have attended!"

St George Bank

"On behalf of the Customer Service Institute of Australia, we wish to thank you for generously supplying Explosive Minds for our 2007 Australian Service Excellence Awards ceremony.

We would also like to compliment Explosive Minds for their professionalism and entertainment value, right down to the finer details of arriving on time for their sound checks and preparation. The feedback we have received both on the evening and afterwards from our guests and award winners has been tremendous. Explosive Minds were certainly well received by the large corporations and all we had attending our event. From CSIA's perspective, it was a highlight for us on the night to see many of our clients having so much fun on stage in the interactive components of their performance.

Without a doubt, this witty and devilishly clever group of performers have a wonderful future ahead of them. We look forward to working with you again in the future."

Customer Service Institute of Australia

"Just take a tough crowd of 110 people and try to keep them both entertained and in order for three whole days? Sounds like a job for Explosive Minds!"

MCing our Annual Staff Conference is a challenging job at the best of times, Explosive Minds added a whole new level to the role. They engaged, they entertained, they kept people organised and in order, they challenged and they made laughter. Most importantly, Explosive Minds treated the audience as though they were intelligent, so they had them in the palm of their hand.

Apart from anything, as an event manager and client, they were a true delight to work with and ultimately flexible. Explosive Minds are true professionals in this rare art. I simply cannot recommend them highly enough."

Ashe Morgan Winthrop

"Absolutely the funniest thing I have ever seen in my life. Phenomenal, Brilliant!"

Infocomp

"I wanted to thank all the EM team for their efforts and enthusiasm over the course of the years workshops and the finale night. Everyone who attended had heaps of fun and I really feel that the workshops have helped us to bring to life our values in an energetic, creative and fun-filled way. The EM team clearly understood the meaning of these values and used their improvisation techniques effectively weave them into the culture we are working to develop."

Swiss Reinsurance Company

"Many thanks and professional kudos to the team from Explosive Minds! Our conference had many challenges that needed to be overcome and in particular the character portrayals at the cocktail party were key to the outcomes. The team were superb and the way that they interacted with the team and drove them towards the specific outcomes was brilliant.

Their after dinner show was a perfect way of demonstrating the value of improvisation and what it provides people in terms of confidence, interaction and charm! The team had us in fits of laughter and we definitely will be using them again in our organisation.

St George Bank

"I'd like to thank you and the team for your work at our International Sales Conference in Singapore. You and your team's involvement in our program allowed us to take a new approach to running these meetings. The feedback has been sensational. Not only were the team entertained throughout the session but the content was also supported by your performances.

Thanks for making our meeting the successful day that it was. I would gladly recommend Explosive Minds to any company wanting to run a meeting that will have an impact!"

Stryker Australia

"Any person or team of persons who can bring a bunch of boring engineers to tears through laughter has a special talent, something that Explosive Minds has an immense amount of. Thoroughly enjoyed by all involved."

Thiess Pty Ltd

I felt that Explosive Minds were incredibly easy to work with and provided content that suited our client and prospective client base. Would definitely work with them again.

Cliftons Sydney

EM's improvisation show is a great dinner entertainment option. The comedy with crowd interaction worked really well to generate a great energy in the room that lasted all night.

Sane Event Management

On behalf of the OzMo committee and all those lucky enough to see your presentation at OzMo, thankyou for an excellent session. The feedback has been nothing short of sensational and was exactly what was needed to end the two days.

We would love the words to the song if possible - we will have to frame the rap!

Fitness First

"Grant and Don from Explosive Minds emceed our 2009 national conference brilliantly, exceeding the already-high expectations we had of them thanks to their emcee work at our 2007 conference. Embracing the conference theme of 'Engage, Excite, Ignite' and utilising the company background information we supplied, Grant and Don read the audience well and adapted their unique sense of humour to suit both the educational plenary sessions and the evening functions, each of which were different in look and feel.

They had the audience totally engaged throughout the three days and nights with their ability to 'ad lib' songs and skits to suit specific situations and audience members. Grant and Don had our delegates hooked on every word and all feedback we have received so far has been resoundingly positive. Both leading up to the event, and during the conference itself, Grant and Don impressed with their professionalism and the ease with which they collaborated with organisers and attendees."

Mortgage Choice

I always think "yeeessss" when a client agrees to engage Explosive Minds for their conference needs. Their versatility is fantastic. From dubious accented characters in costumes during the evening to humorous delegate interaction during plenary sessions they engage all in a refreshingly original way. Their professionalism and their ability to read the audience is superb.

CiEvents