

STUDENT TRAINING

LIVE YOUR DREAMS

Inspire your students to let go of their “personal story” and start believing that what they want to achieve in life is possible. This program incorporates music, audience interaction and detailed instruction on how to create a plan for achieving any goal in school and life.

- Goal Setting and Taking Daily Action toward your Goals and Dreams
- Overcoming Stinking Thinking and use Positive Self Talk to overcome any life challenge
- Finding My Unique Talent in Life and how to Pay Attention
- Learning to Lead by Example and to serve others for the good of everyone

Aric will share with students how this approach has changed his life and the lives of thousands of students just like them.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

HERO ON DUTY: HOW TO LIVE ALL YOUR DREAMS AND HELP OTHERS LIVE THEIRS

HERO – any person admired for courage, nobility, regarded as an ideal role model.

(“Hero” – Webster New College Dictionary)

H-onesty – Tells the truth even when it is not easy
E-mpathy - Understands the feelings of others
R-esponsibility – Ownership for actions, resists peer pressure, resolves conflict non-violently
O-ptimism – Excited about his or her personal future, “my life has a purpose”

This 2-to-3 hour Leadership Training or Conference Keynote extends Aric’s “Live Your Dreams” message to the area of leadership and how inspired, thoughtful students can connect with and lead others in everyday life. Students explore how their actions and words can positively or negatively change the climate and culture of any campus.
