

"A COMIC GENIUS... ENOUGH WIT AND TALENT TO JUMPSTART A PACEMAKER!"

- Aspen Daily News

Mike Rayburn was born breech with six fingers on his left hand (that's true). Thus destined to be a little odd and work with his hands Mike has fulfilled his birthright: Mike Rayburn is the World's Funniest Guitar Virtuoso! (as far as we can tell).

For years Mike has painstakingly avoided popularity. However, after three headline performances at Carnegie Hall we are beginning to see chinks in the armor.

"MIKE IS LIKE VICTOR BORGE WITH A GUITAR ...AND WAY TOO MUCH COFFEE."

-Carnegie Hall concert promoter, Mark Johnson

On this DVD...

Classically Trained, Comically Derailed...

...is Mike's critically acclaimed odyssey of masterful guitar, clean, wonderfully-warped comedy, and musical combinations God never intended.

What If and Why Not?

...is Mike's award-winning keynote presentation. Mike uses his funny songs and virtuosic guitar work to illustrate three tools anyone can use to leap beyond their perceived limitations. These are the tools which took Mike from playing for seven people in a bar in Virginia, to headlining Carnegie Hall.

Though both shows use much the same comedic and musical material, one has a message and the other has no socially redeeming value whatsoever. Enjoy.
