Dear Ms. Adamson:

Thank you for your participation in 20th National APSE Annual Conference in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Your keynote presentation, One Hand Clapping: Appreciation before Accommodation, hit the mark and was well received by the conference participants. Participants noted, "Kate's presentation was truly inspirational and made me re-think how I work with individuals with disabilities in reaching their dreams."; "I left [Kate's keynote] truly inspired."; and "What an amazing message – to never give up on the people we support! Thank you!"

I am very sorry that the books never arrived and you were unable to hold the book signing. We did put your information on our website so participants can contact you directly if they are interested in obtaining a copy of your book.

Thank you again for sharing your courageous and inspiring story to our APSE members!

Respectfully,
