Dear Jeff,

It was a pleasure spending time with you at our recent meeting in Lake Las Vegas. Your presentation was a huge hit with our members. The timeliness of your information, your intermixed humor and thought-provoking message held the attention of everyone every second of the presentation. I have heard numerous economic speakers over the years and I have to say yours was the most understandable and cohesive of any I have ever heard. It seems I was not the only fan you had in the audience since the feedback was excellent.

The Vision Council is committed to keeping our members up to speed in what is going on in the world around them. You can be sure you will have a long term role in making that happen.

On behalf of all of all who were lucky enough to hear you speak, thank you.

Sincerely,

Edward E. Greene
CEO
