Dear Jeff,

Thank you so much for your participation in Financial Women International's 87th Annual Conference on Monday, October 5, 2009. We are overwhelmed by your professionalism and dynamic delivery of your presentation, Myths & Mystery...A 2010 U.S. Economic Outlook.

We asked our conference attendees to complete surveys for our programs. Of the 192 participants at your presentation, we consistently heard: "The best speaker of the entire conference. Even though he had presented at a previous FWI conference, his content was new and reflected the current situation in the US and globally" and "Jeff was great. How wonderful would it have been to have him as an Economics teacher!"

Please allow this letter to serve as a resounding affirmation for your program and share it with others who request references of your work. Thank you again for sharing your talent with our organization.

Warm Regards,
FINANCIAL WOMEN INTERNATIONAL
