Dear Jeff:

I didn't want another day to go by without sending you my sincerest thanks for a job well done at our association's annual convention. As you know, the keynote speaker plays an important role in a convention ~ setting the stage for a positive experience for all in attendance.

You were not only excellent to work with in advance, but onsite you were prompt, helpful and easy to work with. The best part of all - YOU DELIVERED! Your message was on target and our members are still raving about your presentation, "The Adventure of Change: Timeless Certainties for Uncertain Times!" Your talk was very engaging and motivating! I especially loved your slideshow ~ the pictures of all the people that have touched your life was amazing to see!

Thank you again and I hope another opportunity presents itself soon to use you again!

Sincerely,

Jenny Prosser
Manager of Meeting Planning
