Dear David:

Thank you for contributing to the success of the 45th Annual Meeting of the California Association of Homes and Services for the Aging – 45 Years of Quality.

CAHSA members represent the continuum in providing care and services for California's seniors – affordable senior housing, residential care, assisted living, skilled nursing and community-based services. Because of this, CAHSA looks to experts in the field to meet the unique educational needs of its distinctive member types. You played an important part in meeting our objective, which is to provide high quality education to CAHSA members at every level of care.

A summary of the completed evaluations of the workshop is attached for your review.

We trust you know how much CAHSA valued your participation at our annual meeting. Thank you once again.

Sincerely,

Janice Guiliano
Director of Education & Events Management
