

Clients Rave for Mark Sanborn's Leadership Keynotes

Mark Sanborn has made thousands of leadership presentations to satisfied customers. Here's what a few have to say...

“Mark was funny and motivational. His remarks on leadership, teamwork, and self-mastery were right on the mark. Mark’s tailoring made his entire talk a real 'home run' for our event.”

– FedEx

“Your presentation to our top sales and marketing people and our business and marketing vice presidents, as well as our CEO, would be rated a 10 on a 1-10 scale.”

– AMP Incorporated

“Although he prefers to be known as a leadership development speaker rather than a motivational speaker, keynote speaker Mark Sanborn was nonetheless a source of significant motivation for more than 1,300 delegates on the morning of Monday, December 7. Challenging the audience to put their passion for the air show business to effective use, Sanborn received as strong a positive response as any ICAS keynote in the last dozen years. He set just the right tone for the 2009 ICAS Convention and sent everybody in attendance out onto the exhibit floor with purpose and enthusiasm.”
