Dear Matthew,

On behalf of the Oncology Nursing Society, I would like to thank you for sharing your story and your talent as the keynote speaker for the ONS National Conference on Hematologic Toxicities on October 9, 2003 in Dallas, Texas.

The following comments were received on the conference evaluations commending your presentation from the more than 200 participants at the conference:

- Wonderful keynote speaker.
- Speaker/music was a wonderful way to start this conference!
- Thanks for sharing Matthew Zachary – his story and talent.
- Keynote speaker was awesome! I liked the fact that he was treated only with radiation and is now considered cured. As a Radiation Oncology Nurse now it was delightful to hear his testimony and I appreciate ONS for including this in the conference.

I wish you the best of everything.

Regards,

Laura A. Fennimore
