To Whom It May Concern:

We contracted Matthew Zachary as a feature speaker for our annual October event on the recommendation of a colleague in the New Jersey healthcare community. Matthew was easy to work with during the planning phases of our event, a pleasure to meet in person, and a joy to listen to that evening.

I would highly recommend Matthew Zachary to anyone looking for a truly inspirational speaker and entertaining musician for a business or motivational event. Matthew's story of triumph over significant adversity is impressive unto itself, but when punctuated by a concert featuring Matthew playing his own musical compositions on the piano, it drives home how resilient the human body and spirit really are.

Sincerely,

Barbara Tofani
Director
