Author of:

- Survival of the Fittest
- Alpha Dogs: Leading Yourself and Others

Mark brings an understanding of our construction business and an energy that reaches our people top to bottom. There has always been "Breslin chatter" after Mark speaks; and that's a good thing! Mark has become a trusted friend and ally of Michels and we are grateful for his leading contribution to Michels Annual Leadership Conference. I would highly recommend him to any contractor that interested in energizing their workforce; working trades through management."

— Brian Johnson
Executive Vice President
Michels Corporation

"Our first reaction was, "Who the hell is this guy preaching to us,...is he crazy?" Mark, you are the singular reason we are still alive. We have succeeded; from the many ideas that you gave us, or quite frankly hammered into us."

— Micheal Checci
