

Chip Eichelberger, CSP

Dear Chip,

A videotape can only tell you so much about a guest speaker. You make an investment in someone to inspire your audience and hope for the best. I certainly feel like we got the best when we chose you to get us Switched On. The ease with which you connected with our General Managers was amazing! They were engaged and convinced of your message within the first two minutes. The energy that you put into tailoring your speech to our audience did not go unnoticed. Your level of preparedness helped to lend legitimacy to the message that we heard.

Thank you for being a part of our conference. Your inspirational message gave us the motivational tools to achieve not only professional excellence but personal excellence as well.

Sincerely,

Dave Orenstein
