

INTRODUCTION...Teamwork

For your keynote speaker today, we wanted someone who could help us perform better as a team. In order for any group to excel, you need trust, cooperation, and excellent communication.

As we considered countless options, we realized that there are lots of speakers who 'talk' about teamwork. But we found no one who was actually DOING it...until we found these guys.

These professionals know teamwork. They are so esteemed in their field that they have appeared on many television programs including The Tonight Show and The Today Show. They hold 5 Guinness World records, and recently were guest performers at the White House. They were featured in The Addams Family Movie and were even invited to London for a Royal Command Performance for Prince Charles. The Los Angeles Times says these guys are, "Classy, edgy, jaw-dropping and hilarious." Most recently, they were finalists on NBC's hit show America's Got Talent, and we are thrilled to have them here with us today. Please welcome Jon Wee and Owen Morse ... The Passing Zone!!

Note: This is The Passing Zone's Teamwork introduction for various types of performances. Feel free to use our General introduction (shorter) so you have one that best suits your event.
