Dear Russell,

On behalf of Babcock & Wilcox Canada I would like to thank you for your successful portrayal of junior policy adviser to Dwight Duncan, Minister of Energy, during our customer appreciation event entitled, "Power, Golf & David Frum" on Tuesday, July 31, 2007.

As with so many of your clients, B&W Canada was impressed with the extent and thoroughness of research which you performed for our golf event. B&W also appreciated the fact that before the event you engaged our event planners in your research and allowed us to review and edit your material. This is key in having a David Letterman caliber entertainer with Top Ten Lists and good natured employee roasts. It turned out that after a long day of industry talk and golf, our high profile audience was receptive to unexpected comic relief.

Our customers told us that they enjoyed your performance. Your impersonation of a high level provincial government civil servant and the many personal jokes hit the mark.

I would be pleased to recommend you as a consummate professional comedian unafraid to embrace real-life, edgy, night time content.

Thank you Russell and look forward to enjoying you performances on television.
