

Technology Solutions. Delivered.

May 1, 2003

Dear Jack,

Thank you for your participation in our "Executive Dinner" on April 23. The draw of your knowledge and experience was exactly what we needed to deliver the executive audience that attended.

Our event was a true success at many levels. First, we were able to meet "C" level executives that we might not traditionally have had access to. Secondly, business we had in the pipeline has been accelerated, and new opportunities have been uncovered. Finally, the overwhelming response from all attendees has been positive. A true testament to your ability to captivate an audience.

I look forward to working with you in the future. Let this letter serve notice that I would recommend your services to anyone interested. Feel free to use me as a reference for your potential clients moving forward.

Regards,
